I am proud to offer an apartment where quality, design, and craftsmanship is of the highest importance. We have teamed-up with a New York area designer, who has created a digital virtual landscape image of the apartment. This artwork, which will be displayed in the apartment, represents a fully furnished space, which can be tailored to your taste and needs. We want to give you the ability to decorate your own space.

With your feedback, we can make this a reality.

This full service building is located at the epicenter of Manhattan's fashionable Upper East Side between 60th and 61st Street on Third Avenue. The entrance is on 61st Street. A garage is located in the building. The neighborhood abounds with great stores and restaurants, with Bloomingdale's one block south.

Apartment measures 610 sq. ft. of actual living space.*

If measured as a condominium using standard practices, it would be reflected as 680 sq. ft.
